ENGLISH
CLASS V
LESSON – 5 : “MY SCHOOL DAYS”

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

I was not very good at sports. But I could draw very well. As a result, I became the favourite of our drawing teacher, Ashubabu. He was given the charge of decorating the hall for the annual prize-distribution ceremony. He also conducted an event called ‘Music drawing’. For this event, there would be a blackboard and coloured chalks on a table. A student would sing a song and another would draw a picture on the blackboard, trying to capture in lines and colour the essence of song. In this way, through many such happy and memorable episodes, I spent six years of my school life.
